Please join us for this special event...

The American Civil Liberties Union of Georgia (ACLU of Georgia), for the ninth year, is offering lobby training to individuals and other progressive groups each Tuesday during the legislative session. The “By the People” Lobby Day, on February 14th, will give special focus on legislation issues that will impact the public education of students in our state.

Training will also include:

- How to talk to legislators
- What are the “hot” issues and why you should care
- How best to help push or stop legislation
- Legislative updates given by progressive organizations such as Georgia Rural Urban Summit (GRUS)
- A walking tour of the Capitol’s lobbying area and introduction to the legislative process
- Assistance in meeting your senator and representative

A continental breakfast will be provided. There is no charge for the training; drop- ins are welcomed, however an RSVP is preferred.
