

Law Clerk

All clerkships with the ACLU of Georgia are unpaid and require a minimum commitment of 10 weeks. Law clerks in the legal department are asked to conduct legal research, draft legal memoranda, meet with clients, create and maintain case files, attend legal committee meetings, attend oral arguments of the Georgia Supreme Court and Court of Appeals, participate in legislative advocacy efforts, and facilitate community related events to support the work of the legal department.