VERIFIED PETITION FOR WRIT OF MANDAMUS

This is a Petition for a Writ of Mandamus to compel the Fulton County Board of Registration and Elections (the “Board”) to comply with its mandatory public duty under O.C.G.A. § 21-2-265(a) to refrain from “chang[ing] any polling place until notice of the proposed change shall have been published for once a week for two consecutive weeks in the legal organ for the county . . . in which the polling place is located.” “Two consecutive weeks” means 14 days. See Boyd v. McFarlin, 58 Ga. 208, 208 (1877) (“once a week for four successive weeks” means “twenty-eight days”).

Here, the Board refused to perform its mandatory duty to publish notice of proposed polling place changes for at least 14 consecutive days before approving the proposals. Specifically, the Board first published notice of polling place changes in precincts 10E, 10P, 12F, 11C, 10H1, and 10H2 (the subjects of proposals 39/17, 41/17, 42/17, and 45/17) in the Daily Report on Friday, July 7, 2017 and again on Monday, July 10 (see Exhibit A at 2, 14), but voted on and approved these proposals on Thursday, July 13. Thus, only six days had passed since the first publication (July 7) before the Board prematurely and improperly voted on the proposals on July 13.

Before these polling place changes can be enacted in any election, Petitioner requests that this court to issue a Writ of Mandamus compelling the Board to: (1) comply with its public duty to publish notices of such proposals 39/17, 41/17, 42/17, and 45/17 in the legal organ once a week for 14 consecutive days followed by a hearing; and refrain from enacting any polling place changes embodied in proposals 39/17, 41/17, 42/17, and 45/17, in any election unless the mandatory procedural requirements have been satisfied; and (2) for all future proposals of polling place changes, comply with its public duty to publish notices of such proposals in the legal organ once a week for 14 consecutive days before voting on any such proposals.

In support of this Verified Petition for Writ of Mandamus, Petitioner show this Honorable Court the following:

1. Petitioner, the American Civil Liberties Union of Georgia, Inc. is a non-profit organization whose mission is to protect the civil rights and civil liberties of all Georgia residents, including those in Fulton County. Its offices are located in Fulton County and several of its members live in Fulton County.

Petitioner is interested in having the laws executed and the public duty in question enforced, and need not show any legal or special interest. O.C.G.A. § 9-6-24.

2. The Defendant is Fulton County Board of Registration and Elections. O.C.G.A. § 21-2-265(a) authorizes the “superintendent of a county” to “select and fix the polling place within each precinct and . . . change the polling place within any precinct.” The Fulton County Board of Registration and Elections is considered the “superintendent of a county” for purposes of this statute. See O.C.G.A. § 21-2-40; Code of Laws of Fulton County Pt. 1, Ch. 14, Art. II. § 13-32.

3. This Court has jurisdiction to issue a Writ of Mandamus under O.C.G.A. § 9-6-20 et seq.

4. Defendant has a clear legal duty under O.C.G.A. § 21-2-265(a), which provides in pertinent part:

Except in case of an emergency or unavoidable event occurring within ten days of a primary or election, which emergency or event renders any polling place unavailable for use at such primary or election, the superintendent of a county or the governing authority of a municipality shall not change any polling place until notice of the proposed change shall have been published for once a week for two consecutive weeks in the legal organ for the county or municipality in which the polling place is located.

5. “Two consecutive weeks” means 14 consecutive days. See Boyd v. McFarlin, 58 Ga. 208, 208 (1877) (“once a week for four successive weeks” means “twenty-eight days”).¹ The Supreme Court of Georgia is the final word on this matter of course, but it is worth noting that its commonsense interpretation is consistent with the rulings by other courts over the last 150 years, including the Supreme Court of the United States. These courts have also interpreted “for a number of weeks” as requiring the publication of notice for seven days times each week required by the provision. See Early v. Doe ex dem. Homans, 57 U.S. 610, 616-17 (1853) (“once in each week, for at least twelve successive weeks” means “eighty-four days”); Hill v. Faison, 27 Tex. 428, 430-31 (1864) (“at least three successive weeks” “is not complied with . . . unless the full term of three weeks, or twenty-one days, elapses”); Finlayson v. Peterson, 5 N.D. 587 (1896) (“publishing the same for six successive weeks at least once in each week” means “forty-two days”); State v. Cherry County, 58 Neb. 734 (1899) (“for four weeks” means 28 days); Seccombe v. Roe, 22 Cal.App. 139 (Cal. Dist. Ct. App. 1913) (“once a week for four weeks” “meant four weeks of seven days each, or that 28 days shall elapse”); City of Brunswick ex rel. Barkwell v. Benecke, 289 Mo. 307 (1921) (“for two consecutive weeks” means “for full 2 weeks or 14 days”); Jenkins v. City of

Bowling Green, 251 Ky. 119 (1933) (“for two consecutive weeks” means “fourteen days”); Town of Cortlandt v. Vill. of Peekskill, 281 N.Y. 490 (1939) (“for two consecutive weeks” means “the full period of fourteen days”).

6. On Friday, July 7, 2017, the Board published a notice of proposed polling place changes in the legal organ of Fulton County, the Daily Report,² which has a section containing public notices. The published notice included proposals 39/17, 41/17, 42/17, and 45/17, which concern polling place changes or closures in precincts 10E, 10P, 12F, 11C, 10H1, and 10H2 of Fulton County. See Exhibit A at 2-13.

7. On Monday, July 10, the Board published a second notice of these proposed polling place changes. See Exhibit A at 14-21. (Both these publications can be found by entering any of the proposal numbers in the search field of the public notice website. <http://www.dailyreportonline.com/public-notices>.)

8. On Thursday, July 13, the Board voted on and approved these proposals. Petitioner was in attendance at the meeting and had asked the Board to postpone its vote.

² In the by-line of the Daily Report which appears when the user enters “Daily Report Fulton County” in Google, the Daily Report describes itself as “the official legal organ of Fulton county.”

9. These polling place changes have not yet been enacted for any election.

10. By voting to approve these polling place changes without having published the notice for 14 consecutive days, Defendant has “failed to perform or improperly performed” its clear legal duty under O.C.G.A. § 21-2-265(a), and its decision was thus made outside its authority.³ The statutory exception for disregarding the 14-day requirement also does not apply, because there was no “emergency or unavoidable event occurring within ten days of a primary or election.” O.C.G.A. § 21-2-265(a).

11. Where, as here, the government entity has refused to comply with mandatory procedural obligations when issuing a decision, a writ of mandamus is appropriate to require them to reconsider their decision after complying with the proper procedures. See, e.g., Ga. Dept. of Transp. v. Peach Hill Properties, Inc., 278 Ga. 198, 199-201 (2004) (where DOT “enacted a blanket policy refusing to seek any exemptions from the FAA on the part of landfill operators,” mandamus was appropriate directing the DOT to reverse its decision and “establish objective guidelines” for the consideration of exemptions); Dougherty Cnty. v. Webb, 256 Ga. 474, 474-77 (1986) (where County Commission “voted unanimously to deny the application” without considering relevant evidence in violation of a clear statutory duty, proper mandamus remedy was to order Commission to reconsider petitioner’s application under the correct evidentiary standards), disapproved on other grounds by City of Cumming v. Flowers, 300 Ga. 820 (2017); State Bd. of Examiners in Optometry v. Soc’y of Prof. Optometrists, Inc., 231 Ga. 44, 44-46 (1973) (where Georgia State Board of Examiners denied a request for approval of a continuing education program on alleged untimeliness grounds, mandamus requiring the board to reconsider its decision on substantive criteria was proper).

³ It might be the Board’s interpretation that “once a week for two consecutive weeks” means once in each of two consecutive calendar weeks, and that such a requirement was satisfied because they published on Friday July 7 (covering the calendar week of July 2-8), and on Monday July 10 (covering the calendar week of July 9-15). This interpretation is in error in light of the plain language of the statute and the authorities cited above. But even if “two consecutive weeks” means “two consecutive calendar weeks,” two full calendar weeks must have passed before the polling place change could be voted on. In Whittle v. Whitley, 202 Ga. 633, 633 (1947), the Supreme Court of Georgia held that a requirement that an election be “advertised once a week for two consecutive weeks” preceding the election was not satisfied where “the election is held on Saturday of the last week during which the notice was published.” Id. Here, the vote was held on Thursday (July 13) of the last week during which the last notice was published on Monday (July 10), in violation of the statute.

12. Accordingly, Petitioner seeks a Writ of Mandamus requiring the Board to comply with its duty to publish notices of such proposals 39/17, 41/17, 42/17, and 45/17 in the legal organ once a week for 14 consecutive days followed by a hearing; and refrain from enacting any polling place changes embodied in proposals 39/17, 41/17, 42/17, and 45/17, in any election unless the statutory requirements have been satisfied.

13. Furthermore, this is not the first time that the Board has failed to perform its mandatory duty of publishing proposed polling place changes for 14 consecutive days prior to a vote. For example, proposals 12/17, 14/17, 15/17, 16/17, 17/17, and 18/17 were not first published until May 4, 2017, see Exhibit B, six days after the Board already voted to approve them on April 28, see Exhibit C.⁴ Proposal 31/16 was first published on December 5, 2016, and voted on only three days later on December 8. See Exhibit D at 5-6, Exhibit E at 3.⁵

14. In light of the Board's pattern of ignoring the statute, Petitioner also requests a Writ of Mandamus compelling the Board to perform its duty to publish notices for 14 consecutive days before voting on any future polling place changes. Given the Board's regular disregard of the 14-day notice period and the length of time required to resolve petitions for writs of mandamus, it may not be practicable to file a petition every time Petitioner learns that the Board has refused to comply with its notice obligations.

15. Petitioner has no other specific legal remedy for Defendant's violation of its public duty to publish any proposed polling place changes for 14 consecutive days before they are approved. O.C.G.A. § 9-6-20.

⁴ The published notices oddly indicate that the proposals would be voted upon on May 12, 2016. See Exhibit B at 2, 4. To the extent that this was a typo intended to be May 12, 2017, such a date would only be eight days after May 4 and not compliant with the statute if that is when the hearing occurred. In any event, the Post Meeting Summary, pulled from the Board's website, indicates that this was voted upon on April 28, 2017. See Exhibit C.

⁵ Exhibit E, the Approved Minutes for the December 8, 2016 meeting, was pulled from the Board's website.

16. This petition concerns one of public right whose object is to procure the enforcement of a public duty. Petitioner is interested in having the laws executed and the duty in question enforced, and need not show any legal or special interest. O.C.G.A. § 9-6-24.

17. It is not manifest that a Writ of Mandamus would be nugatory or fruitless. O.C.G.A. § 9-6-26. First, Board members may change their mind after the public has had the full fourteen days to bring forward other information that the Board might not have considered before voting on the proposals. Second, subsection (b) of O.C.G.A. § 21-2-265 provides that if “20 percent of the electors of the precinct” sign a petition “objecting to the proposed change” and presents the petition “on or before the day set for hearing,” the polling place change “shall not be ordered.” Thus, if affected electors dissatisfied with the proposals had fourteen days to organize a petition instead of only six days, they may have been able to block these changes.

WHEREFORE: Petitioner respectfully requests that this Court issue a Mandamus Nisi (proposed order attached hereto) as soon as practicable, directing the Defendant to be and appear before this Court within not less than ten nor more than thirty days, as required by O.C.G.A. § 9-6-27(a), then and there to be heard, and show cause, if any they have, why a Writ of Mandamus Absolute should not be granted, ordering Defendant to (1) comply with its public duty to publish notices of such proposals 39/17, 41/17, 42/17, and 45/17 in the legal organ once a week for 14 consecutive days followed by a hearing; and refrain from enacting any polling place changes embodied in proposals 39/17, 41/17, 42/17, and 45/17, in any election unless the mandatory procedural requirements have been satisfied; and (2) for all future proposals of polling place changes, comply with its public duty to publish notices of such proposals in the legal organ once a week for 14 consecutive days before voting on any such proposals.

Petitioner also requests such other and further relief as may be just and proper, including attorneys' fees.

This 18th day of July, 2017.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Sean J. Young
