Here is the first of a few text that I have send and Rec'd...I will send a few more to bring you up to speed! Also I had several phone conversation: with. SAM!

Are you as furious at Sam Olens and KSU as I am about cheerleaders kneeling ? Sam is coddling them.

10-4

By the way the first text is a text i got from State Rep Earl....He a d i had several phone calls as well....This text is from me to Earl....

: Hell yes!

I have not had a chance to talk with Sam but yes I am furious about this total disrespectful of the men and women that fought and died for this country! Penny and I both are upset. Matter of fact Penny even had tears in her eyes and was nauseated. It's ironic that Penny and I were discussing this issue again this morning. She said that she had talked with Sam last night and he told her that they were working on it. We are scheduled to sit in Sam's box this weekend at the game. In good conscious I am not going be attending the game. I'm going to decline and that's my PROTEST. Penny and I have been season ticket holders from the very beginning. Also we have an endowment for the criminal justice program at KSU. I can assure you personally I will not be giving a dime until Sam and the KSU authorities showed at least they're standing up to these liberal. Legally I'm not sure they can stop or do anything to stop someone from this Un America ACT. These college leaders have got to stand up to these liberals! Let me know what I can do to help you stop this BS on taxpayer-funded college campuses.

Absolutely agree.

Here is the last text i send to Earl....This was after my phone call with Sam... Fwd: I don't know if you have talked to Sam lately, but I just got off the telephone with him again reference the unpatriotic cheerleaders kneeling during the national anthem. He assured me that the cheerleaders will not be on field until the players come on to the field after the national anthem, which has been the teams procedure in the past. Thanks for always standing up too these liberal that hate the USA. Neil Last text i got from Earl....

Fwd: Yes we spoke last night. He had to be dragged there but with you and I pushing he had no choice. Thanks for your patriotism my friend

Good morning Robert,
Did you get several text that forward to you last night?

Yes sir I did. John and I texted back-and-forth last night. He said It would be fine if we wanted to write up a couple of thoughts and send it to them for inclusion in around town. He's gonna be tied up most of this morning about not available until later this afternoon so emailing him will be fond. I thought it might write put together a couple of lines for your consideration.

That sounds great.... matter fact I was going to recommend that to you... Maybe you can take some of my thoughts from those text messages and come up with something... then u and I could all talk! I don't want to be negative towards Sam or KSU but want to be very pro pro patriotic to the flag, military, and law enforcement!

Yes sir. Good point.

want to make sure we make the point that I was willing to give up my ticket and any financial support to KSU if they did not stop this unpatriotic act!

Untitled

For your information only.... not letting the cheerleaders come out on the field until after national anthem was one of the recommendations that Earl and I gave him!

Got it

This is my last text on this unless u need something from me lol.....One more thing fyi only, Penny called Sam wth out my knowledge and b4 I called him to protest the cheerleaders! Sam told her that he didn't have any authority to do anything which even pissed me off more!

I would think he would have a lot of influence on what they do in the field

It's a public university and we're paying the bills!

That's what many of us was telling him....I ask him if he would allow me to stand beside the cheerleader and hold a sign stating that I support the flag, Military and law enforcement!!!!

What do u think he said?

You are not allowed on the field

Exactly so my freedom of speech is limited, but as a taxpayer.....I'm paying for the cheerleaders to have a stage to exercise their free speech... I told him it ain't right! which he agree and assured me he was going to correct it!

AS THE NATIONAL ANTHEM began to play during last week's football game at Kennesaw State University, Cobb Sheriff Neil Warren said he couldn't believe his eyes.

Several Owl cheerleaders on the field "took a knee."

Former San Francisco 49ers quarterback Colin Kaepernick began kneeling at NFL games during the "The Star-Spangled Banner" last season as a way to protest racial injustice. The controversial practice has since been embraced by some players and the debate rekindled when President Donald Trump said pro players that took a knee should be fired.

"My wife, Penny, had tears in her eyes, and we were both shocked to see such a lack of respect for our flag, our national anthem and the men and women that serve our nation," Warren said.

Warren said the cheerleaders were taking a knee "on the very soil that men and women have died overseas to protect."

"Cobb County has lost sons and daughters at home and on foreign lands while protecting America," he said. "And to witness these ill-informed students acting this way clearly tells me KSU needs to get busy educating these students on more than just passing their classes. They need to learn all that the flag truly represents.”

The sheriff said he and his wife have been supporters of KSU for years, both in the community and through a public safety education endowment. He has also known and respected KSU President Sam Olens since his days on the county commission.

“During a recent conversation, Sam assured me that this will not happen again,” Warren said. “I hope he is right because I stand with America, I stand to show respect to our military and all those that serve in public safety. Hopefully this Saturday, Penny and I can get back to enjoying our season tickets and support the many great things happening at KSU.”

State Rep. Earl Ehrhart, R-Powder Springs, said his phone began to blow up from upset constituents as word about the kneeling cheerleaders spread.

Ehrhart chairs the committee in charge of funding Georgia’s public universities.

“The bottom line for me in all of this is if you’re on an athletic team, I don’t care what political statement you’re making, even if it’s repugnant and hateful like the ones those cheerleaders made. Play football. Cheer. Play in the band. If you want to make a political statement, do it in the middle of the public quad and that’s your right in this country.”

The lawmaker said there’s a school of thought he plans to press if the matter is not resolved: While some say the practice is covered under the First Amendment, consider if you’re the team quarterback preparing to pass the ball. But instead of passing, “You say, ‘Oh no, I need to make a political statement. I need to kneel.’ And then he gets slaughtered by the opposing team. What do you think the coach is going to do? Pull him out of the game,” Ehrhart said.

Yet Ehrhart said Attorney General Chris Carr and Olens have been helpful in the situation and he believes the behavior will not occur at KSU again.

“If you insist on political statements, just stay in the locker room until after the anthem is over. I suspect (that directive) will come from the athletic department to the coaches to the team from the president,” Ehrhart said.

Sheriff- this what I propose sending to Jon. Give me a call when you can we will edit or amend as needed.

Jon-

Thanks again for the opportunity for Sheriff Warren to share his thoughts on the KSU Cheerleaders taking a knee. Sheriff is pretty fired up over this!

Remarks from Sheriff Warren:

I could hardly believe my eyes when during that National Anthem at last week's KSU football game the cheerleaders on the field took a knee. Why in the world would anyone think this is appropriate?

My wife Penny had tears in her eyes and we were both SHOCKED to see such a lack of respect for our flag, our national anthem and the men and women that serve our nation.

These kids were taking a knee on the very soil that men and women have died overseas to protect. Cobb County has lost sons and daughters at home and on foreign lands while protecting America. And to witness these ill informed students acting this way clearly tells me KSU needs to get busy educating these kids on more than just passing their next test. They need to learn all that the flag truly represents.

Penny and I have been a supporters of KSU for years, both in the community and through a public safety education endowment. I have known and respected KSU President Sam Olens since his days on the county commission and he clearly knows where I stand on this issue. I stand with America, I stand to show respect to our military and all those that serve in public safety.

But I cannot support a publicly funded university that permits this type of disrespectful protest. My season tickets, checkbook and KSU jersey will not see the light of day until our flag, national anthem get the respect they deserve!!!

Sir,

I just read The News Article in regards to The KSU Cheerleaders taking a knee. As a Veteran of The U.S. Army and U.S. Coast Guard along with being a part of The Law Enforcement Family, I want to say " Thank You " for taking the time to express your families disappointment. It was disheartening to know that a family event meant for fun brought your Wife to saddened tears.

For me personally it meant the world to me that someone of your stature spoke up where others can not.
